

It's Plein Air!!

Saturday, June 8

What's more perfect than a day in June?

It's being outside painting on that perfect June day!

Here are three, from Black Mountain, NC to Tampa, Florida.

Enjoy!

It's Plein Air!!

Saturday, June 8, 2024

What ideal weather for painting plein air at Lake Tomahawk in Black Mountain! I hadn't worked outside or in public view in a year. But I had my Artcomber cart with all my supplies and found a spot off the walkway - the beautiful red maple had stopped me in my tracks. Folks going by said "good morning" and I enjoyed having a brief chat or two. I used ArtSpectrum blue haze paper and a mix of soft pastels from my traveling box, of course longing for the right green back in the studio. Thanks for a most enjoyable outing.

Diane de Grasse
Black Mountain, NC

It's Plein Air!!

Saturday, June 8, 2024

I loved the hazy look of the palms thick before the lake. I was under a covered pavilion.

Occasionally there would be a sweet breeze floating by, very helpful on a 90 degree day. Thanks for letting me know join in from Tampa.

Have a strictly artful day,

Pat Fenda
Tampa, FL

It's Plein Air!!

Saturday, June 8, 2024

Lake Tomahawk
9x12

On watercolor paper.
I was going to do a
wash but never did.

Margaret Lyn-Soroken
Black Mountain, NC

